

2003

Dear Bulletin Secretary:

Thank you for your help in alerting the members of your church to the ministry of Reformed Engaged Encounter. By placing these announcements in your bulletin at least once a month throughout the year you are passing along vital information to young couples and their parents. Would you please include your pastor's name in each announcement as your information contact person? Thank you for your help.

Bulletin Announcement # 1:

Reformed Engaged Encounter exists to help couples build strong marriages. Period. For more information contact Pastor _____, or Ross and Pam Landhuis at (616) 878-3909 or visit our web site at www.reformedengagedencounter.org.

Bulletin Announcement #2:

If you love your fiancée, give her the gift of commitment. Start by planning to attend a Reformed Engaged Encounter weekend. For more information contact Pastor _____, or Ross and Pam Landhuis at (616) 878-3909 or visit our web site at www.reformedengagedencounter.org.

Bulletin Announcement #3:

Hey! Getting hitched? Sportin' that big rock from your beau? We specialize in asking the hard questions and getting you to answer them together. Reformed Engaged Encounter is a weekend that covers the real topics with real couples that have been there and done that. Check out our web site (www.reformedengagedencounter.org) for available dates. We dare you to come.

Bulletin Announcement #4:

To those who are engaged. It is with warm regards that we extend this invitation, nay, this challenge to you. The esteemed "company", Reformed Engaged Encounter, is willing to accept your apprenticeship for one weekend. Your instruction will be in the art of preparing for holy union. To apply for this honor please ring (616) 878-3909 or browse www.reformedengagedencounter.org.
